

AMENDED ARMY BILL.

PRINCIPAL PROVISIONS AS THEY NOW STAND.

A Short Synopsis of the Whole Bill—It Provides for a Volunteer Service Entirely.

Under the amendments made by the Military Committee the new Military bill will be entitled "An Act to Regulate the National Guard of Hawaii." It contains some sixty sections, providing among other things that the organized uniformed militia of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands should be known as the National Guard of Hawaii. This force shall not exceed ten companies, and must be located throughout the Islands with reference to the military wants thereof, means of concentration, and other military requirements, all the companies being joined together in one battalion or regiment.

The President is Commander-in-Chief of the National Guard and his staff may consist of one adjutant, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel; one quartermaster, one ordnance officer, each with the rank of major; two aides-de-camp, each with the rank of captain, appointed by and holding office at the pleasure of the President. Officers of the regiment or any company accepting staff appointments are held to have resigned their commissions in such regiment or company. All officers and soldiers of the National Guard on becoming members, and before performing duty, and at each subsequent enlistment, must take and subscribe an oath that they will support the Provisional Government, maintain and defend its laws and officers and serve for a term of one year, provided that the Government should no longer require their services.

The uniform is to be the same as that adopted by similar troops in the army of the United States, and the system of instruction prescribed in that army is to be followed here. Officers will take precedence according to the date of their commissions; when two are of the same date, then by length of previous service; if that is the same, then by lot. Vacancies in elective offices of the National Guard not in active service are filled by election, the election to be presided over by an officer appointed by the President for that purpose, with seven days notice to the members of the company. Commissioned officers removing from the Islands, or being absent therefrom more than thirty days, shall be deemed to have resigned.

Enlisted men may be discharged before the expiration of their terms by order of the commanding officer on the recommendation of his company commander, and for any of the following reasons: To accept promotion by commission, upon removal of residence out of the bounds of the command to which he belongs, upon disability established by a certificate of a medical officer, or he may be dishonorably discharged for conviction of felony or sentence by court-martial. Regimental and company rules not in conflict with those of the Government may be adopted and enforced. Fines and penalties for non-attendance on drills, parades and inspection are to be collected by suit brought in the District Court. All officers and soldiers of the National Guard who comply with the duties of the act are to be exempt from the payment of poll and road taxes and from jury service. The Commander-in-Chief may at any time, by and with the consent of the Executive and Advisory Councils, disband any portion of the National Guard. No military organization under this act is allowed to carry any flag but the Hawaiian.

Whenever a sufficient number of persons subscribe a call for the organization of a company, the Commander-in-Chief, with the consent of both Councils, must appoint a time and place of meeting for the purpose of organization and detail an officer to preside over the same. The Commander-in-Chief may refuse to issue a commission to any officer if in his opinion said officer is unqualified or unworthy. Non-commissioned officers are nominated by company commanders, with the approval of the regimental commander, and cannot afterward be reduced in rank except for cause.

The companies are to be armed and equipped in the same manner as similar corps in the United States army. Each company is to consist of not less than fifty nor more than 103 officers and privates, and organized as follows: One captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, five sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, one marker, and not less than thirty nor more than eighty-three privates. There must be an annual inspection in the month of June. Every elective officer must pass an examination before an examining board of three commissioned officers appointed by the President. Applications for membership in any company of the National Guard can only be made at the regular weekly meeting, and the name of the applicant must be posted up in the company quarters for one week previous to being balloted for. When in active service, however, soldiers may be enlisted as required. A regiment of the National Guard consists of not less than six and not more than eight companies; less than six constitutes a battalion. Field officers are one colonel, one lieutenant colonel and one major, elected by the commissioned officers of the battalion or regiment for two years. The present field and line officers of the battalion hold office, however, for the term of two years and one year, respectively, and thereafter until their successors are appointed. The colonel may concentrate the musicians and organize the same as a drum corps, under charge of a drum major. Each company must have weekly drills and instruction.

Officers and soldiers, while on active service of the Government, receive such pay as may be determined by the Executive and Advisory Councils. When not on active service no pay will be received. The rules and regulations for courts-martial are similar to those of the United States.

In case of war, insurrection or rebellion, or of resistance to the execution of the laws, the National Guard or any part thereof may be called out by the President by proclamation, designating time, place and the officer to whom they must report.

CIRCUIT COURT MATTERS.

Sam Parker's Troubles—The Gibson Estate—Other Matters of Litigation.

Hawaiian Lodge, No. 24, F. and A. M., by Carter & Carter, its attorneys, has filed an answer in the case of Allen & Robinson vs. F. H. Redward and the lodge, denying the truth of each and every allegation in the plaintiff's complaint alleged, and denies that it is indebted to the said F. H. Redward or Allen & Robinson, and gives notice that among other defenses it relies upon the bankruptcy of the said defendant, F. H. Redward.

In the divorce case of Kahina (w) vs. Kalepe the defendant has filed an answer denying desertion on his part, and setting up the fact that the cause has been already decided by Judge Cooper on the 24th day of May last.

In Lazarus vs. Lazarus, on a petition for separation from bed and board, a stipulation has been filed that the motion for alimony may be heard on Tuesday, August 1st.

The case of Renken vs. Luzowick has been set for trial on Monday at 2 p. m. by stipulation of attorneys.

In the matter of the estate of W. M. Gibson, deceased, Judge Whiting has made an order appointing Cecil Brown as trustee in place of J. S. Walker, deceased, with bond fixed at $25,000.

The bankruptcy case of Hopp & Co. vs. S. M. Parker has been continued till Wednesday at the request of the other creditors.

In the matter of the estate of George Snyder, the petition of the administrators for final examination of his accounts and discharge is set for next Wednesday, as is also the hearing of the proof of contested claims in the bankruptcy case of Chon Wah Sing.

The Alexander's Feat.

There is a chance for war with Hawaii and an opportunity to seize by force of arms what we would not accept as a gift. One of our warships, the Mohican, has been disabled, rendered hors de combat, "knocked out" in one round by a plain seal stealer, and the outrage demands an immediate and humble apology. If the atonement is not sufficient Mr. Blount may be compelled to shake out the Stars and Stripes over the peaceful isles, and that, we believe, would be a serious injury to his dignity. Not since the present administration has come into power has there been such an opportunity for a display of righteous wrath, and we expect to see Hawaii eat the humblest sort of pot in the near future.—Evening Post.

Oleson at Work.

Professor Oleson is doing good work for annexation in the United States. He has been interviewed at length by the leading Boston journals and has given their columns important refutations of Charles Nordhoff. The New York Sun speaks highly of Mr. Oleson's statements, and uses them as a basis of extended commentary. For lack of space to-day the Star is obliged to defer an extended quotation of what the reverend gentleman said to the Boston public.

Sam Parker's Affairs.

At the request of the committee of creditors of Samuel Parker the bankruptcy proceedings instituted by Hopp & Co. have been continued until Wednesday. In the meantime the committee are trying to find some means by which the creditors may realize something, but, according to the statement of one of its members, Mr. Parker's affairs are in a hopeless condition, and the more they are examined into the worse they appear.

A Coming Preacher.

During Rev. Dr. Beckwith's vacation of six weeks, Rev. Wm. Rader, assistant to Dr. McLean of the First Congregational church of Oakland, Cal., will preach in this city. He will occupy the Central Union pulpit to-morrow and conduct the Wednesday evening prayer meetings. Mr. Rader is stopping with Mr. Weedon, who is occupying Rev. Dr. Hyde's house.

Larry Dee's Accident.

While making a short turn at the depot this morning Larry Dee was thrown out of his delivery wagon, sustaining some severe bruises and a few scratches on the face. He will be all right in a day or two.

PRATT HOLDS THE FORT.

DELAYS THE INSTALLATION OF WILDER.

And Incidentally Does Not Recognize the Authority of American Cabinet Officials.

Letters received from Consul General Wilder at San Francisco state that the legal incumbent of the office, Mr. Pratt, is holding on to it like a hole to a doughnut.

It seems that, during the President's absence at Buzzard's bay Consul Wilder's exequatur could not be issued, so the Secretary of the Treasury, acting under Mr. Graham's instructions, notified the collectors of the Pacific ports to recognize the new Hawaiian official ad interim. The collectors were willing to, but Pratt was not. He had a soft job and he had proposed to keep it, in spite of the alluring prospect he told the San Francisco papers about of coming here and superseding President Dole. When Mr. Wilder notified him of the Secretary's message to the collectors and mentioned certain instructions he had had from Charge d'Affaires Hastings, Pratt replied that he knew nothing of Hastings, and that he should not turn the office over to Wilder until the exequatur had come to hand.

At last accounts the legal Consul General had telegraphed to learn whether his papers were yet on the road from Washington.

man whom he had thrown to the ground. The king jumped from his carriage and seized the arm of the large man, at the same time calling to the man on the ground to make his escape. An aid-de-camp ran to the King's assistance. The big man knocked down the aid and turned on the King. The latter dealt him a hard blow on the head with his walking stick. The ruffian tried to draw his knife and revolver, but was overpowered by the King, who delivered him to the police. The King was uninjured.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

ARRIVAL OF THE LINER MARIPOSA.

The Alexander's Shot at the American Cruiser Mohican—Matters and Things on the Front.

The Oceanic Company's liner Mariposa, Commander Hayward, docked at the wharf at 3 o'clock this morning, 6 1/2 days from San Francisco. The cause of delay in departure of the steamer from the coast was the English mail, which crossed the Atlantic on the slow ship Servia. The steamship Monowai was sighted yesterday, and no other special incident occurred on the voyage.

The Mariposa brings a small cargo of general merchandise for local merchants and left this afternoon en route to the Colonies.

The British ship Parthenope, Captain Heil, anchored in the stream at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, 5 1/2 days from Newcastle. She brings a cargo of coal for Castle & Cooke.

The American bark Elizabeth Graham anchored abreast of the Boston last evening, forty-six days from Newcastle, with a cargo of coal for this port.

Much amusement has been caused in town by the report that the Hawaiian steamer Alexander fired upon and crippled the U. S. cruiser Mohican. Hawaii will begin soon to plume herself as a great naval power, and Uncle Sam had better look out for his laurels.

The Kamihini, it will be observed, has the Boston and Adams under her broadside.

The Monowai took 975 bunches of bananas to San Francisco; also 622 letters and 149 papers.

The next steamer for San Francisco will be the City of New York, due here on Monday.

The Mariposa brought twenty-eight cabin passengers, besides three children, for this port, and twenty-one in the steerage.

The Mariposa had only seventeen passengers for Sydney and one for Auckland.

Mails for the Colonies close at 5 p. m., the Mariposa leaving an hour later.

The term Allen A. left for Eureka in ballast this afternoon.

The schooner Talbot is loading at Pacific Mail wharf.

The chief officer of the Mikahala stepped on a loose rope yesterday and fell overboard. He reached the wharf without assistance.
